

What is in it for me?

Being a Young Ambassador gives you lots of great opportunities – both immediate and for the long term. Here are just a few:

- Lots of fun!
- The opportunity to have your voice heard
- Represent others in your community and chance to find out more about your local community
- Impact positive change
- A reference for school/ college/ university/ employment
- LOADS of Skills development – Youth Work, and other Relevant training, Project Planning, gain a Duke of Edinburgh Award or Accreditation – just to name a few
- Working with senior decision makers
- Getting to deliver and take part in the activities on offer during the Summer, Winter and Easter holidays
- New experiences
- Meeting new people!
- £50 Vouchers of your choice as a THANK YOU!
- Free fun activity at the end of Summer Programme to celebrate!!

Becoming a Young Ambassador gives you the chance to make your mark. You will also have the added gratification of creating something incredible for other young people in the borough and seeing that in action!

What is in it for us?

- Young Ambassadors and future leaders from the community
- Opportunities to get a young person's take on things
- To make sure we are doing what's right for you
- Young people who are helping other young people in the borough
- Young People working with young people.

We're looking for someone who is

- Is committed.
- Is prepared to undertake training and gain accreditation or awards.
- Is available over some if not all the key holiday periods (Summer, Winter and Easter) the Seasonal periods to help with the delivery our holiday programme
- Is passionate about helping other young people
- Likes to have fun and try new things
- Wants to learn new skills
- Has an interest in issues affecting young people
- Wants to create change and be a voice.